Dear Sirs

Kaupthing Singer & Friedlander Limited (In Administration) (“KSF”) Notice to creditors of intention to declare a dividend

I write to inform you that I intend to declare a seventeenth interim dividend in the administration of KSF. If you have registered an Insolvency Claim Form with the Administrators previously, there is no need to take any action in relation to the attached notice. For the avoidance of doubt, creditors who have been notified that their claims have been admitted for dividend purposes will automatically participate in all dividends declared to unsecured creditors by the Administrators.

If you have not previously registered an Insolvency Claim Form with the Administrators but consider that you have a claim against KSF, I enclose, for your attention, formal notice of my intention to declare a dividend and would draw your attention in particular to the last date for proving claims set out in the notice. If you do not prove your debt by the last date for proving you may be excluded from the dividend which I intend to declare within a period of two months from that date. The Insolvency Claim Form that you need to complete and submit has been forwarded to you previously. Copies of the form are available from KSF’s website, www.kaupthingsingers.co.uk.

The Administrators are required to declare a dividend within a period of two months from the last date for proving. It is the Administrators’ current intention to declare and pay a seventeenth dividend of not less than 0.1p in the £. An update on the timing and quantum of the dividend will be provided on the KSF website by 29 June 2018.

If you have any queries in relation to this matter, please contact Emily Hewitt on the direct line telephone number shown above.

Yours faithfully
for KSF
